Welcome to the World AI and Robotics Conference 2026. We are delighted to welcome you to Atlanta from June 08–10, 2026, for three inspiring days dedicated to the ideas, technologies, and people shaping the future of intelligent systems.

This conference brings together global leaders in artificial intelligence, robotics, research, policy, and industry to explore how innovation is transforming the way we live, work, and connect. Across visionary keynotes, hands-on workshops, technical sessions, and live demonstrations, you will gain insights into breakthroughs in AI, autonomous systems, robotics, ethics, and real-world applications driving global impact.

Beyond knowledge sharing, this event is designed to foster meaningful connections. You will engage with innovators, entrepreneurs, investors, researchers, and decision-makers who are building the next generation of intelligent solutions. We encourage you to collaborate, exchange ideas, and form partnerships that extend well beyond these three days.

Atlanta, a dynamic hub for technology, culture, and innovation, provides the perfect backdrop for this global gathering. Adding to the excitement, the FIFA World Cup will take place just one week after our conference, bringing a spirit of global energy and celebration to the city.

Thank you for being part of this journey. Together, let us imagine boldly, innovate responsibly.
